Krukov: What is this? Some sort of escape route.

Cherdenko: No sir, twelve months ago, I was put in charge of a top secret project.

Krukov: Whatever it is, it's too late.

Cherdenko: With respect general, you are wrong.

Cherdenko: For you see sir, time is on our side.

Time Machine

Doctor: It isn't ready. It hasn't been tested. We don't even know if it works.

Krukov: If what works?

Doctor: My time machine.

Cherdenko: Prepare these coordinates.

Cherdenko: Get in.

Krukov: You can not be serious?

Cherdenko: Come comrade general! A new world order awaits...

Doctor: Touch nothing. We mustn't do anything to disrupt space time continue.

Krukov: Where are we?

Cherdenko: Brussels 1927.

Cherdenko: The Solvay International Physics Conference.

Doctor: Is that Einstein?

Cherdenko: Yes doctor, the man most responsible for our enemies technological superiority, the man who made them invincible.

Doctor: What do you plan to do?

Krukov: I do not understand.

Doctor: We have altered the past and changed the present.

Natasha: Good to see you sir. I have the reports from the front that you requested.

Krukov: Thank you. What do you have for me?

Natasha: I'm sorry comrade general. I meant premier Cherdenko. So the allies are on the run. Soon western Europe will be ours.

Cherdenko: Do you hear that general? Our enemies have been defeated.

Natasha: Hold on sir. I'm receiving an emergency transmission from our northern base.

Fedorovich: They're attacking. They're too many. We have to evacuate!

Natasha: Who is attacking?

Yoshiro: The imperial war machine has been unleashed. Do not struggle against what is inevitable. All who stand in the way of our divine destiny will be swept away by the march of history. You will bow before us or you will cease to exist.

Natasha: Sir, it appears that the Empire has mounted a full scale assault.

Natasha: The Empire of the Rising Sun, of course.

Doctor: We now have two mortal enemies?

Krukov: We must unleash our nuclear weapons. Annihilate them all!

Krukov: Our nuclear weapons. Our atomic bombs!
